ABOUT US

About the Host Institution: Quaid-e-Azam Medical College (QAMC)

Established in 1971, Quaid-e-Azam Medical College is one of Punjab's premier medical institutions, recognized for its commitment to clinical training, patient care, and academic excellence. Serving as a central healthcare hub in Southern Punjab through its affiliated teaching hospitals, QMC continuously strives to nurture healthcare professionals who combine clinical competence with a passion for inquiry and community service.

About the Organizer: Quaidian Research Forum (QRF)

The Quaidian Research Forum (QRF) is a student-led academic society founded to cultivate a thriving research culture at Quaid-e-Azam Medical College and across Pakistan.

Recognizing that modern healthcare demands evidence-based practice, QRF bridges the gap between classroom theory and real-world scientific inquiry. Through hands-on workshops on methodology and systematic reviews, peer mentorship programs, and academic symposiums, QRF equips undergraduate medical students with the tools, confidence, and ethics needed to design, conduct, and publish meaningful research.

About QAMCON'26

QAMCON'26 is the flagship national medical conference organized by QRF. Designed as an inclusive, high-energy academic meeting, it gathers medical students, house officers, and young researchers from across the country under one roof. The conference offers a vibrant stage for participants to present original investigations, challenge ideas, learn from distinguished faculty, and build lasting professional networks that shape the future of medical science in Pakistan.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

It is my absolute honor to welcome you to QAMCON'26! We designed this conference with one clear goal: to give medical students a platform to step beyond textbooks and into active scientific discovery. You do not need to wait until graduation to shape the future of medicine. As you prepare for October 22, know that this stage is yours. Whether you are finalizing a research paper, perfecting your Innovation Vista pitch, or studying for the Medical Quiz, we are excited to celebrate your curiosity. Through our official partnership with the International Journal of Medical Students (IJMS), your hard work will soon reach a global audience. A heartfelt thank you to our Patron, Dr. Summaira Hasan, and my incredible organizing team for bringing this vision to life. Get ready to Learn, Present, Compete, and Connect. We cannot wait to host you!

Warm regards,
Mahnoor Baloch
President, Quaidian Research Forum

Special Notice for QAMC Students

Exclusive Campus Access:

Students of Quaid-e-Azam Medical College who wish to compete only in the Medical Quiz Competition and/or Innovation Vista can register for these specific events individually without paying the full conference registration fee. (Note: Full conference access, workshop entry, abstract publication, and conference lunch require standard registration).

POSTER & ORAL PRESENTATIONS

Oral Presentations Present your original clinical or basic science research on stage, followed by a brief Q&A with our expert panel.

- Post-Graduate Track: 11:30 AM – 12:30 PM
- Under-Graduate Track: 12:30 PM – 01:30 PM

Poster Presentations (11:30 AM – 01:30 PM) A dynamic, visual display of your study, case report, or review. Stand by your work and engage in one-on-one discussions with judges and attendees.

- Presentation Limits: A maximum of 2 presenters are allowed per poster. Additionally, a single presenter can present a maximum of 2 posters during the event.
- Hassle-Free Printing: Leave the logistics to us! Just upload your finalized design to the portal, and QRF will print, deliver, and mount your poster at the venue completely free of charge

Submit Your Abstract Today!

Our Official Website is LIVE!

How to Apply:

1. Visit our portal: gamcon.gamconqrf.workers.dev
2. Follow the easy step-by-step submission guide.
3. Select your preference and upload your abstract.

(Note: Once your abstract is accepted, you will need the Presenter Registration (PKR 2,500). This covers full conference access, your presentation slot, free poster printing, and your IJMS publication.)

QUIZ COMPETITION

Overview & Team Formation

Team Composition: Each team must consist of exactly 5 members.

Registration Format: Participants must sign up as a complete team.

Availability: Slots are strictly limited and allocated on a first-come, first-served basis.

Registration Fee & Deadline (Standalone Campus Teams)

Fee: PKR 2,000 per team (for QAMC teams participating exclusively in the quiz).

Registration Deadline: 10th October 2026.

(Note: Registered conference presenters can participate at no additional charge).

Exclusive Interactive Preparatory Session

Before the main stage contest, an interactive orientation session will be organized to ensure all teams hit the ground running:

Clarify competition rules and round formats.

Break down expectations, timing, and scoring criteria.

Review key medical concepts, high-yield subject areas, and team queries.

Provide strategic guidance on how to coordinate and perform effectively under time pressure.

INNOVATION VISTA

What is Innovation Vista?

Innovation Vista is an unrestricted, high-energy forum created for ideas that step outside traditional medical textbooks. Whether you have designed a practical prototype, mapped out a theoretical solution to a clinical challenge, or want to trigger critical debate on taboo, sensitive, or ethically complex topics in medicine, this stage is yours.

Session Format & Time Allocation

Pitch Duration: 5 minutes strictly dedicated to your presentation or demonstration.

Discussion & Defense: 3 minutes of interactive Q&A and dialogue with the evaluators and audience.

Medium of Presentation: Physical working models, conceptual blueprints, interactive simulations, slide pitch decks, or open debate prompts.

Evaluation Focus

Originality & Novelty: Uniqueness of the perspective, model, or proposed solution.

Critical Thinking & Feasibility: Depth of rationale, addressing practical challenges, or depth of ethical reasoning.

Delivery & Defense: Clarity within the 5-minute window and responsiveness during the 3-minute Q&A.

Standalone Registration (For QAMC Students)

Base Entry (1 to 3 members): PKR 1200

Extended Teams (4 or more members): PKR 1,800 (Base PKR 1200 + PKR 500 team extension)

Deadline: 10th October 2026

(Note: Registered QAMCON presenters receive complimentary access to participate with no extra fee).

CDC WORKSHOP

Unlock the Power of Public Health Data

Step into the world of epidemiological research before the main conference begins. This exclusive, two-day hands-on workshop will train you to navigate the CDC WONDER database—a powerful tool for medical research and data analysis.

What You Will Learn:

Data Extraction: Learn how to pull real-world public health and mortality data.

Trend Analysis: Understand how to read and analyze epidemiological statistics.

Research Application: Build the skills to use this data to write your own original research papers and reviews.

Workshop Details:

Dates: October 20 & 21, 2026

Time: 02:00 PM – 04:00 PM (Both days)

(Note: Full access to this two-day workshop is included free of charge with your QAMCON Observer or Presenter registration pass. Please bring your laptops for hands-on practice!)

MAJOR ANNOUNCEMENT

Quaidian Research Forum (QRF) × International Journal of Medical Students (IJMS)
The Organizing Committee of QAMCON'26 is proud to announce an official publication partnership with the International Journal of Medical Students (IJMS).
About IJMS

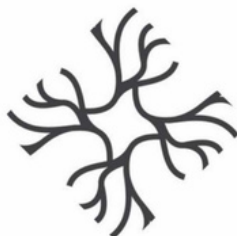

The International Journal of Medical Students (IJMS) is a globally recognized, peer-reviewed, open-access scientific journal specifically dedicated to showcasing undergraduate and early-career medical research.

- Global Reach & Indexing: IJMS is widely indexed in leading international research databases, including Scopus, Directory of Open Access Journals (DOAJ), and registered with Crossref, ensuring maximum discoverability, citation tracking, and archival permanence for early-career investigators.
- Commitment to Young Researchers: Run by a distinguished international editorial board of clinician-scientists and student editors, IJMS sets a standard for ethical, transparent, and rigorous scientific reporting worldwide.

Special Conference Abstract Booklet

To honor the scholarship of our participants and ensure enduring international visibility:

- Official Abstract Supplement: Every original research study and scientific poster accepted and presented at QAMCON'26 will be compiled into an official Conference Abstract Booklet.
- International Publication: This booklet will be formally published in a special conference issue under the auspices of the International Journal of Medical Students.
- Citable Academic Record: Authors will receive documented international recognition for their accepted abstracts, providing a tangible, citable addition to their academic resumes and research portfolios.
